The Detroit Conservatory of Music, under the direction of Jacob H. Hahn, gave a recital on the 14th ult.

Mrs. Louie A. Peebles, the favorite soprano, begs leave to inform her friends and patrons, that after years of practical service in the principal churches of this city, acting as leading soprano thereof, she has concluded to devote her entire time to those desiring to study the art of singing correctly, and by the most authentic method. Her long years of experience in this branch of art, having graduated under the best masters, both in vocal and instrumental (the latter being especially essential), enable her to render incomparable service to the pupil.

For bouquet, purity and healthfulness, Cook's Extra Dry Imperial Champagne has no rival. It is splendid with a dinner.

Mr. Franz A. Apel, of the Detroit school of music, gave his fourth piano recital on the 3d ult., introducing novelties and works seldom played.

Mr. H. Durand, of the Wabash line, is a great lover of music and the arts; he is one of the most popular of railroad officials and a man of splendid ability.

A concert was given at Union Hall, White Hall, Ills., by Mr. Harry Rogers, violinist; Miss Anne F. Woodward, pianist; Miss Edith V. Fishback, elocutionist, and Miss L. Gertrude Carson, vocalist. It was the occasion of Miss Woodward's debut, and all scored a decided success.

The Scientific American, published by Munn & Co., New York, presents weekly to its readers the best and most reliable record of various improvements in machinery, while the scientific progress of the country can in no way be gleaned so well as by the regular perusal of its pages.

William Armstrong, of Alton, picked up a very valuable work in a second-hand book store in Chicago. It is entitled "The Vocal and Instrumental Music of the Prophets, or the History of Dioclesian, MDCXCI-1691," dedicated by the author, Henry Purcell, to His Grace Charles Duke of Somerset. It has the old hog skin binding—well dried up after a service of two hundred years.

Eugenia Williamson, B. E., and her pupils gave a soiree in Elocution, Delsarte and Aesthetic Physical Culture, at Pickwick Theater, on the 27th ult. Miss Clara Stubblefield was musical director and Mrs. Joseph W. Crookes, alto. The numbers rendered by Miss Williamson's pupils were of a very high class and were given with such grace and proper conception as to stamp Miss Williamson a teacher of the highest order. Miss Williamson favored the audience with "Elizabeth Zare," "Tom's Come Home," and "The Raven," a pantomime by Edgar E. Poe, in which she was assisted by her pupils. Miss Williamson's power to captivate an audience and hold them spell-bound were at once apparent in these numbers, and called forth enthusiastic applause. Mrs. Joseph Crookes shared in the honors of the evening, and had to respond to her solo, "Oh, That We Two were Maying," by Huldah, with an encore. Mrs. Crookes was a pupil of Mrs. K. Broadbush, and has a fresh and highly cultivated voice. Miss Clara Stubblefield's accompaniments were perfectly rendered.

The New Military Band, formed by Richard Maddern, of the Grand Opera House, held a special rehearsal at Aschenbroedel Hall, on the 9th, ult. Mayor Noonan and many prominent citizens were present, and all expressed the highest satisfaction at the result of the band's work. Mayor Noonan complimented Richard Maddern, the leader, and the band in a few well-chosen words.

The Costive Habit,

So called, is usually induced by neglecting to secure a regular daily movement of the bowels. To remedy this habit, all harsh and violent purgatives should be avoided, as they tend to weaken the excretory organs, and so confirm the trouble rather than cure it. The safest and most effective remedy is Ayer's Pills, which are strengthening as well as cathartic.

"I have been taking Ayer's Pills and using them in my family since 1857, and cheerfully recommend them to all in need of a safe but effective cathartic."—John M. Boggs, 807 W. Chestnut st., Louisville, Ky.

"I regard Ayer's Pills as one of the most reliable general remedies of our times. They have been in use in my family for various affections requiring a purgative medicine, and have given unvarying satisfaction. We have found them an excellent remedy for colds and light fevers."

—William R. Woodson, Fort Worth, Texas.

"For eight years I was afflicted with constipation, which at last became so bad that the doctors could do no more for me. Then I began to take Ayer's Pills, and soon the bowels recovered their natural and regular action, so that now I am in excellent health."

—William H. DeLaucett, Dorset, Ontario.

"During the past 28 years I have used Ayer's Pills, successfully, for all derangements of the stomach, liver, and bowels."—Prof. Chauncy Herdsman, A. M., Business College, Woodside, N. J.

"Having been troubled with costiveness, which seems inevitable with persons of sedentary habits, I have tried Ayer's Pills, hoping for relief. I am glad to say that they have served me better than any other medicine. I arrived at this conclusion only after a faithful trial of their merits."—Samuel T. Jones, Oak st., Boston, Mass.

"During the past two years I was a great sufferer from constipation, headache, and general debility. My skin was yellow, and I had a constant pain in my side and back. Other medicines failing, I took three boxes of Ayer's Pills and am cured."—Herbert Elwell, East Saginaw, Michigan.

"Having long used Ayer's Pills with good results, I can confidently recommend them above all others, in every case where a reliable and effective cathartic is needed."

—Thos. Conners, M. D., Centre Bridge, Pa.

"I like Ayer's Pills better than any other cathartic I have ever used."—Matthew P. Summerow, Austin, Texas.

MEDELSSOHN QUINTETTE CLUB.

The Mendelssohn Quintette Club gave the second concert of the season at Memorial Hall, on the 20th ult. The soloists were Mrs. Mayo-Rhodes, soprano, and Mr. P. G. Anton, Jr., violinist. The attendance was very large and appreciative. Mrs. Mayo-Rhodes was well received and applauded. "Guaracha," one of the numbers, played by Mr. Anton, Jr., was written especially for him by his father. Mr. Anton's playing was remarkably fine and evoked great applause. The work of the quintette was highly complimented, and in keeping with this club's constant advancement.

CHORAL-SYMPHONY CONCERT.

The second concert of the symphony series was given at Entertainment Hall, on the 15th ult., with Miss Maud Powell, violinist, and Mr. J. P. Grant, accompanist. Haydn's Symphony in a flat, the first number on the programme, was most beautifully rendered. In listening to it, the evidence that Haydn was the forerunner of the symphonic form was apparent. While this symphony does not abound in the grand effects of Beethoven, it has the most difficult points, and proved the complete mastery of the orchestra in surmounting them with ease.

Max Bruch, whose concerto for violin in G minor was played by Miss Maud Powell, completes the trilogy with Beethoven and Mendelssohn. Max Bruch is now in every artist's repertory despite the fact that Von Bülow said he was no composer. Miss Maud Powell played this concerto with a brilliancy and fervor not to be excelled. Her detail of finish was remarkable, and she was recalled again and again.

The two melodies for string orchestra, by Grieg, were pretty and well executed, but they are not Grieg's happiest efforts. We do not find the absolute individuality which others of his works show. The overture to "Oberon," by Von Weber was never heard to better advantage. The attack of the horns was admirable. The andante movement was faultless, and the little flute passages without blemish. The sudden explosion of the chords fairly lifted the audience from the seats. Mr. Otten, the conductor, is to be congratulated upon the success of this excellent concert.

XAVER SCHARWENKA.

Xaver Scharwenka, who will this season appear in St. Louis, belongs to a family which has won the highest distinction in the musical world. He shares with his older brother Philip, the honors of international fame, as a teacher and composer, and beyond that occupies a place in the first rank as piano virtuoso. His name was well known on this side of the Atlantic, even before he paid his brief visit in August, 1889, when he came as a visitor and not in a professional capacity. His reputation as founder and director of the Conservatory of Music in Berlin which bears his name, is based on the success of an institution from which very many promising and brilliant American students have been graduated during the past decade.

Xaver Scharwenka's high place in the musical world was won, however, several years before he established his famous conservatory. He is three years younger than his brother Philip. He was born in January, 1850, at Samter, in the Prussian province of Posen. In 1857, when his family removed to the capital of Posen, Xaver attended the gymnasium, and showing a love for music at that early date, took piano-forte lessons from the cantor of one of the churches. In 1865, when the Scharwenkas moved to Berlin, Xaver entered Kullak's famous Neue Akademie der Tonkunst, studying piano under the elder Kullak, and composition under Richard Wuerst, having as companions and fellow students Moritz Moszkowski and Nicodé.

After completing his studies Xaver Scharwenka was appointed one of the professors at Kullak's, and after four years of hard work and earnest study he gave his first concert at the famous Sing Akademie, of Berlin, when his talent and ability received immediate recognition. Since then he has made no less than 187 public appearances, in Germany, Russia, Austria, Hungary, Sweden, Norway, Belgium and England.

The list of Xaver Scharwenka's works embraces sixty-two numbers, among them are a symphony (op. 60, in C minor) which was given under Mr. Thomas by the New York Philharmonic Society, in the season of 1885 a piano quartette, two trios two piano concertos, a violin sonata, a cello sonata, and a grand opera "Mataswintha," portions of which will be heard on the present American tour. Of his Polish dances, it is said that no less than a million and a half copies have been sold on this side of the Atlantic.

Herr Scharwenka holds the appointment of Court Pianist to the Emperor of Germany. He is one of the most thoroughly representative men of the modern school of German musicians, to which belongs his brother Philip, Moritz Moszkowski, and Jean Louis Nicodé.

WHERE DO ALL THE OLD PIANOS GO?

"Where do all the old pianos go?" "That's a question I've asked myself a number of times, but I never took the time to prosecute the inquiry," said a dealer, in the Indianapolis Journal. "A great many pianos have been turned out in the last one hundred years, and organs, too. As to organs, I noticed an advertisement the other day of one organ house which has been established fifty years, in which occur these words: 'If the keys of those 200,000 organs were scattered in a field and a boy were hired to pick them up at one cent for ten, he would make $122,000 for this job.' Now that's the make of only one house, and organ manufacturers are nearly as thick as counts in Italy." But," suggested the reporter, who saw a limitless field opening before him, "I'm to confine my inquiry here to pianos."

"What becomes of the old pianos?" said the dealer, repeating the question. "Well, when they get old, we rent them, or sell them at a greatly reduced price, to persons who cannot afford to buy new ones."

"What is the average life of a piano?" "That depends upon the care taken of an instrument and the manner in which it is used. Some pianos are old at fifteen or twenty years; others remain good for double that time. I have seen pianos that were good after thirty-five years' constant use, and I have yet to see the first piano that could be called valueless. The wood of an old piano cannot be used over in a new instrument, but is valuable for some kinds of repairing. Pianos were formerly made much lighter than now, the strings were smaller, the legs plain, round or octagon. Now a great amount of beautiful carving appears upon an instrument. Here is a piano that is at least sixty years old and still has a small rental value. It is a small and light affair. Manufacturers are now, by reason of competition, compelled to make good and durable as well as beautiful instruments, and the piano of to-day is, by far, the best the world ever saw. Mozart had no such instrument to play upon as we now produce every day and sell, not alone to the wealthy, but to people of moderate circumstances, the Smiths, Browns, Joneses and Robinsons of every-day life. The wires of an instrument made now will outlast those made upon the plan of thirty years or more ago, as the wires of a piano of to-day will show an aggregate resistance of from fifteen to twenty tons."

AN ARAB SAYING.

Remember, three things come not back:
The arrow sent upon its track—
It will not swerve, it will not stay
Its speed; it flies to wound or slay.

The spoken word, so soon forgot
By thee; but it has perished not;
In other hearts 'tis living still,
And doing work for good or ill.

And the lost opportunity,
That cometh back no more to thee,
In vain thou weepest, in vain dost yearn,
Those three will nevermore return.

—The Century.

BELLEVILLE.

The 114th concert of the Philharmonic society was probably the best ever given by that very popular body. A large and fashionable audience listened to a high class programme. Mr. B. Dierkes, baritone and Mr. P. G. Anton, Jr., celloist, both of St. Louis, captivated every person present, and are sure of a royal reception whenever they come again. Mr. G. A. Neubert, the conductor, has brought the society to a high degree of excellence, and its work at this concert proves the thoroughness and masterly ability of the conductor.

CITY NOTES.

J. P. Grant is the accompanist of the Choral Symphony Society.

Mr. August Halter played at Topeka, Kan., for the Choral Society there.

James M. North, the well known vocal teacher, is at work on a cantata.

Tom Doan, the favorite tenor, came from New York to visit his old friends.

C. H. Johnson, organist of the Pilgrim Church, has a ladies chorus doing good work.

The Next Symphony concert will be given on the 12th inst., at Entertainment Hall.

The Wiseman Concert Co gave its first concert at St. Charles, Mo., on the 28th ult.

The Hatton Glee Quartette was engaged by the Comp-ton Hill Council Legion of Honor.

Miss Clara Stubblefield, organist of Centenary Church, has a splendid chorus assisting her.

The Lafayette Park Presbyterian Church has engaged Mrs. McCandless as soprano for the ensuing year.

St. John's Episcopal Church has "Stabat Mater," Rossini, in preparation. It will be given next month.

Miss Charlotte H. Hax-Rosatti can be seen at her residence, 1738 Chouteau avenue, on Monday afternoons.

E. R. Kroeger's fifth annual concert will be given at Memorial Hall, on the 9th inst. He will be ably assisted.

Steinkuehler's Orchestra furnished the music at the Fireman's Ball, given at Music Hall, Exposition Building.

The next concert of the Olive Branch Congregational Church will be given under the direction of Otto Anschuetz.

E. R. Kroeger brought out Haydn's "Creation" at the Church of the Messiah with well trained soloists and chorus.

The St. Louis Glee Club will give its first concert at Pickwick Hall, on the 5th inst. The club numbers forty members.

The Western Musical Improvement Society intends to bring out the opera "Falka," under the direction of Ernest Rivar.

J. A. Morgan, the portrait artist, of 2248 Washington avenue, has done fine work for many members of the musical profession.

W. H. Pommer, director of the Lyric Club, will exact the best from that body, and when a concert is given it will be well worth attending.

Miss Cora Fish, of 4258 St. Ferdinand avenue, is organist of Plymouth Congregational Church. She has an excellent class of piano students.

J. S. Parker, of St. John's Episcopal Church, gave his sixth organ recital there on the 13th ult. The church is grateful to Mr. Parker for his endeavors in its behalf.

Mrs. A. L. Palmer, of 2700 Lucas avenue, is a pupil of Robert Goldbeck, and uses his method of teaching in her classes. Mrs. Palmer assisted Mr. Goldbeck in his concerts in London.

The choir of the 3rd Congregational Church is composed of August Rosen, organist; Mrs. Kausmere, soprano; Mrs. Gould, alto; Mr. Bradburn, tenor; and Mr. Ryder, bass. The organist and soprano were re-engaged.

Miss Nellie Strong gave a musicale at her studio, 603 N. Jefferson Ave. Misses Cora Fish, Nellie Paulding, Anna Vieths, Grace and Master Platt assisted. The programme was carefully selected and delighted every one present.

Miss Julia Vollmar sang the 121st Psalm at the dedication of the New Orphan's Home, Warrenton, Mo. Her beautiful rendition of this Psalm, was very effective. The Warrenton people were quite captivated by her fine soprano voice.

Miss Alice Pettengill will give a recital of dance music at 2716 Dayton street, on the 7th inst. She will be assisted by her pupils and by Mrs. L. B. Ralston and Miss Ralston, piano, Mrs. Douglas Phillips, soprano, and Mr. Harry Rogers, violin.

Mrs. Douglas Phillips, soprano of the First Congregational Church, sang Gounod's Ave Maria, with piano, organ and violin accompaniments at a recent concert. Mrs. Phillips is a very artistic singer, and her voice is beautiful in quality.

An entertainment was given on the 22d ult., at Olive Branch Congregational Church. One of the numbers, "Lust-spell overture," was played by Otto Anschuetz and Walter Stark, a pupil; the latter displayed good talent, and splendid teaching.

Mrs. Reismeyer sang for the St. Louis Damen Chorus on the 25th ult., at St. Louis Turner Hall, 15th and Chouteau avenue. The song selected was "Merrily I Roam," by Geo. Schleichfarth. The audience was captivated, and gave her rounds of applause. Otto Anschuetz played a very fine accompaniment.

The Orpheus Sangerbund, assisted by other societies, will give a concert next month at the Grand Opera House. A full orchestra will be in attendance, under the direction of Fred. W. Norsch. The programme will include "Das Feuerkreuz" by Max Bruch; "Gewitter," by Mohr. "Am Chiem See" and "Christus am Oelberg."

Sev. Rob. Sauter, the well known violinist, played under the greatest conductors in Europe. There the members of an orchestra are wholly taken up with its proper work and development, and a conductor must be eminently fitted for his post to render service. Once, when Wichtl, the celebrated violinist and author was called to the conductor's desk, he was quickly sat down upon by the orchestra, which he was unable to conduct. The same circumstance occurred in Von Bülow's career.

CITY NOTES.

The first grand concert of the Western Musical Improvement Society, under the direction of Roscoe Warren Lucy, took place at Memorial Hall, on the 29th ult. A varied and excellent programme was offered. The hall was well seated, and the numbers were received with great applause. Mr. Lucy was complimented on all sides for his great success.

Among the numbers contributed at West Gate Lodge Hall, for the benefit of St. James Episcopal Church, were "Lucia di Lammermoor"—Liszt, by Roscoe Warren Lucy; "The Clouds Have Passed Away"—Gillsinn, by Miss Covington; "Imogene"—piano duet—Robyn, by Miss Ella and Ernest L. Robyn; "Answer"—Robyn, by George F. Townley, tenor.

The Mary Institute will give another "Poet Day" early in February. This is a series of "Poet Days" inaugurated by Mrs. W. J. Brainard, the active directress of music at the institute. The music will be of the 16th century, and will be very instructive as well as interesting. Mrs. Brainard's efforts are always most successful, and this occasion will be no exception.

The St. Louis Turn-Verein gave a concert on the 18th ult. The principal numbers of the programme were contributed by the pupils of Mr. Sev. Rob. Sauter, the well known violinist, and Vollrath's orchestra. They were: "Overture," Boieldieu, "Wedding March," Mendelssohn and "Jumbo Quadrille," Sauter. Mr. Sauter's pupils did most creditable work. They could not do otherwise under his magnificent training, and were received with great warmth by the audience.

The comforts we now have in traveling on wheels is one of the remarkable achievements of the day. Take the Wabash line, which goes to Chicago, Detroit, Toledo, New York, and other points, as a well known example. The cars on this line are the most perfect and comfortable human ingenuity can devise. The rich home and its luxurious comforts are outvalued, for every desire is at one's beck, so to say. With free palace reclining chair cars, new buffet boudoir sleeping cars, there is nothing wanted to complete the traveler's happiness unless it be a view of the great wonder of the world, Niagara Falls; this being the only line to New York via Niagara Falls. Even speed is improved upon; the Wabash arriving in New York over two hours earlier than any other line.

The reason that Genelli's photos are always the best is that he keeps the best and highest-salaried artists to be had for love or money. Studio, 923 Olive Street.

NOCTURNE.

F. Chopin, Op. 27 No. 2.

Lento sostenuto ♩. — 50.

The first system of the musical score. It features a treble and bass staff in B-flat major (two flats). The tempo is marked 'Lento sostenuto' with a quarter note equal to 50 beats. The mood is 'dolce'. The piece begins with a piano (p) dynamic. The right hand plays a series of eighth notes, while the left hand plays a steady eighth-note accompaniment. The system concludes with a fermata over a half note. Below the staff, the instruction 'sempre legatissimo.' is written. There are also markings 'Red.' and a small asterisk-like symbol.

The second system of the musical score. It continues the melodic and accompanimental lines. The right hand features more complex fingering and some grace notes. The left hand maintains the eighth-note accompaniment. The system ends with a fermata. Below the staff, there are several 'Red.' markings and the instruction 'espressivo.'.

The third system of the musical score. The right hand continues with intricate fingering and some triplet markings. The left hand's accompaniment remains consistent. The system concludes with a fermata. Below the staff, there are several 'Red.' markings and the instruction 'poco cres.'.

The fourth system of the musical score. The right hand features a series of sixteenth-note passages. The left hand continues the eighth-note accompaniment. The system ends with a fermata. Below the staff, there are several 'Red.' markings and the instruction 'cres. f'.

S E C O N D O .

This image shows a page of musical notation for a piano piece. The notation is arranged in six systems, each consisting of a grand staff (treble and bass clefs). The music is written in a key signature of one sharp (F#) and a 3/4 time signature. The notation includes various musical elements such as notes, rests, and dynamic markings. The first system starts with a piano (pp) dynamic and includes a tempo marking of 'Allegro strepitoso'. The second system includes a 'ff' (fortissimo) dynamic. The third system includes a 'ff' dynamic. The fourth system includes a 'ff' dynamic. The fifth system includes a 'ff' dynamic. The sixth system includes a 'ff' dynamic. The notation is complex, with many notes and rests, and includes various musical notations such as 'Red.' and 'x' marks. The page is a high-resolution scan of a printed musical score.

PRIMO.

This musical score is for the PRIMO part of a piece, featuring piano and violin staves. The tempo is marked Allegro strepitoso with a metronome marking of $M.M. \text{♩} = 88$. The score is divided into several systems, each containing a piano staff and a violin staff. The piano part includes complex rhythmic patterns, often marked with 'Red.' and asterisks, and dynamic markings such as pp, ff, and rf. The violin part features melodic lines with various ornaments and trills, also marked with 'Red.' and asterisks. The score includes numerous musical notations, including triplets, sixteenth notes, and various rests. The overall style is characteristic of 19th-century musical notation.

Allegro strepitoso. M.M. ♩ = 88.

SECONDO.

Allegro.

The first system of musical notation consists of two staves. The upper staff is in treble clef with a key signature of one flat (B-flat) and a 2/4 time signature. It contains a series of eighth and sixteenth notes, some with fingerings (4, 1, 3, 3, 4) and accents. The lower staff is in bass clef with the same key signature and time signature, featuring a steady eighth-note accompaniment. The system concludes with a repeat sign.

The second system continues the musical piece. The upper staff features a series of chords and single notes, with a first ending bracket labeled '1' leading to a final chord. The lower staff has a bass line with some triplets and a double bar line. There are some markings like 'ff' and 'Bd.' below the staff.

The third system shows the continuation of the melody in the upper staff and the accompaniment in the lower staff. It includes a first ending bracket labeled '1' and various musical notations such as slurs and accents.

The fourth system continues the musical notation. The upper staff has some chords and single notes, while the lower staff has a bass line with some rests and notes. There are some markings like 'X' and '4' above the staff.

The fifth system shows the final part of the musical notation on this page. The upper staff has a series of chords, and the lower staff has a bass line with some notes and rests.

SECONDO.

This page of musical notation, titled "SECONDO.", contains six systems of staves. Each system consists of a grand staff with a treble clef on the upper staff and a bass clef on the lower staff. The key signature is two flats (B-flat and E-flat), and the time signature is 3/4. The notation includes various musical symbols such as notes, rests, accidentals, and dynamic markings like "ff" (fortissimo) and "f" (forte). There are also performance instructions like "Ped." (pedal) and "Ad." (ad libitum). The piece concludes with a double bar line and repeat dots.

The first system features a long melodic line in the treble staff, starting with a half note and followed by a series of eighth notes. The bass staff provides a harmonic accompaniment with chords and single notes. The second system continues the melodic line in the treble staff, with the bass staff providing a steady accompaniment. The third system shows a more complex texture with multiple voices in both staves. The fourth system includes a section marked "ff" in the bass staff, indicating a forte dynamic. The fifth system features a section marked "f" in the bass staff, indicating a forte dynamic. The sixth system concludes the piece with a final chord and a double bar line.

S E C O N D O .

This image shows a page of musical notation for a piano piece, consisting of six systems of staves. Each system typically has a grand staff (treble and bass clefs) and a single bass staff. The notation includes various musical symbols such as notes, rests, slurs, and dynamics. Dynamics like f (forte), ff (fortissimo), and rf (rassente forte) are used throughout. Performance instructions such as "Red." (likely a redaction or a specific performance instruction) and asterisks (*) are placed below the staves. The piece concludes with a double bar line and a final chord. The notation is dense and detailed, typical of a professional musical score.

PRIMO.

This page contains six systems of musical notation, each consisting of a grand staff (treble and bass clefs). The notation is for a piano piece, likely in the key of B-flat major or D-flat major, given the key signature. The systems are separated by horizontal dashed lines. Various musical notations are present, including notes, rests, and dynamic markings such as f (forte) and ff (fortissimo). Some systems include fingerings (e.g., 1, 2, 3, 4) and articulation marks (e.g., accents, slurs). The notation is dense and complex, suggesting a technically demanding piece. The page is labeled "PRIMO." at the top center.

11. mf

The musical score is written for piano and bass. It begins with a treble and bass staff. The first system includes a treble staff with a melody and a bass staff with accompaniment. The second system continues the melody and accompaniment. The third system features a treble staff with a melody and a bass staff with accompaniment. The fourth system includes a treble staff with a melody and a bass staff with accompaniment. The fifth system features a treble staff with a melody and a bass staff with accompaniment. The sixth system includes a treble staff with a melody and a bass staff with accompaniment. The score includes various musical notations such as notes, rests, dynamics (mf, p, pp, f, fp, fz), articulation (accents, slurs), and performance instructions (Ped., riten.). Fingerings and pedaling are indicated throughout the piece.

First system of musical notation. The treble clef staff contains a melody with various fingerings (1-5) and slurs. The bass clef staff provides harmonic support with chords and single notes. Dynamics include fz (forzando), dim. (diminuendo), and pp (pianissimo). A Ped. (pedal) instruction is present in the bass staff.

Second system of musical notation. The treble clef staff has rests followed by a melodic phrase. The bass clef staff continues the harmonic accompaniment. Dynamics include p (piano) and pp. l.h. (left hand) and r.h. (right hand) markings are used. A Ped. instruction is present in the bass staff.

SONG OF THE MAY BELLS.

Third system of musical notation. The treble clef staff features a melody with many eighth and sixteenth notes. The bass clef staff has a rhythmic accompaniment. Dynamics include fz and p. A Ped. instruction is at the end of the system.

Fourth system of musical notation. The treble clef staff continues the melody. The bass clef staff has a complex accompaniment with many chords. Dynamics include p. Multiple Ped. instructions are present in the bass staff.

Fifth system of musical notation. The treble clef staff has a melody with slurs. The bass clef staff has a rhythmic accompaniment. Dynamics include mf (mezzo-forte) and riten. (ritardando). A Ped. instruction is present in the bass staff.

First system of musical notation, measures 1-4. The music is in 2/4 time with a key signature of one flat. The right hand features a melodic line with eighth and sixteenth notes, while the left hand provides a steady eighth-note accompaniment. Fingering numbers (1-5) are indicated above and below the notes.

Second system of musical notation, measures 5-8. Measures 5 and 7 include the instruction "Ped." (pedal) followed by an asterisk. The melodic line continues with various intervals and ornaments, and the accompaniment remains consistent.

Third system of musical notation, measures 9-12. The right hand introduces a more complex melodic pattern with slurs and ties, while the left hand continues with eighth-note accompaniment.

Fifth system of musical notation, measures 17-20. Measures 17 and 18 are marked "riten." (ritardando), and measures 19 and 20 are marked "a tempo." The music transitions from a more active eighth-note texture to a slower, more sustained melodic passage.

Club House Brand

A Strictly Pure Bourbon Whiskey for Medicinal and Family Purposes.

Distilled with great care on the Old Fashion Kentucky Hand-made Sour-mash Plan. Thoroughly aged and purified in barrels for ten years before bottled. It is peerless for medicinal use, with delicious taste and flavor; most grateful and digestible to the weakest stomach; possessing in highly concentrated form, the aromatic and tonic qualities of the grain from which it is distilled. A trial demonstrates its high character. Sold in cases of twelve full measure quarts, $10.50 per case.

TO BE HAD OF THE BOTTLERS AND PROPRIETORS.

M. SHAUGHNESSY & CO.,

402 N. MAIN ST., ST. LOUIS.

Sample case will be sent on trial if not found satisfactory it can be returned and money will be refunded.

will be upon Chicago for the next three years at least, and it will be her own fault if she does not continue to attract attention. As manufacturers of Musical Instruments we have tried to do our part toward making our city known and with such lines as

THE WASHBURN GUITARS, MANDOLINS AND ZITHERS, THE LYON & HEALY HARP,
THE REED-PIPE ORGAN,
THE LYON & HEALY PARLOR ORGAN, THE "STAR" BANJO

and other first-class instruments we may rest our claims to consideration.

If the reader is interested in musical instruments of any kind, a cordial invitation is extended to visit our warerooms when in Chicago, or write us for information. We publish thirty one (31) separate catalogues describing everything known to music and will be pleased to mail any of them on application.

SPECIAL NOTICE!

ALL REGULAR AGENTS FOR

Kunkel's Musical Review

Are provided with receipts, of which the adjoining cut is a fac-simile, save that in the regular receipts the firm signature of the publishers is not printed, but written in ink. Any one giving his subscription to a person not provided with these receipts does so at his own risk, as the publishers WILL HONOR NONE OTHERS, unless they actually receive the cash for the subscriptions.

This notice applies to such as are strangers to you. Where you know the party soliciting to be positively reliable, the receipt, of course, is not necessary.
